Arts & Culture

Students researched methods to present works of art. The new Visual Art Standards contain three anchor standards that embody the artistic process of presenting including analyzing and interpreting artistic work for presentation, developing and refining artistic techniques and work of presentation, and conveying meaning through presentation of artistic work.

- Over 300 pieces displayed on March 30th
- Media included drawings, painting, pottery, sculpture, photography, digital medium and film.
- 150 visitors
- Artwork included artists from Woodlawn Middle & High Schools
- Artwork displayed from various grade level showed students the expectations of grades above and below.
