STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

- To build and provide resources to serve our students, educators, and schools.
- To provide under federal and state laws, an appropriate method to solicit charitable contributions.

MISSION

To support improved educational outcomes for our community through fundraising, programs, and advocacy.

VISION

To contribute to a brighter future in which all students, educators, and schools have the resources needed for success.

GOALS | The primary goals for implementing our mission in support of our vision are:

Fundraising - To facilitate corporate and community partnerships to raise money and acquire resources necessary to support our advocacy and programs.

Programs - To develop and manage programs for grants, scholarships, and special initiatives that advance educational outcomes.

Advocacy - To provide leadership to drive awareness for unmet needs in public education that require additional support.

Core Values - The Foundation supports BCPS' commitment to graduate globally competitive students. The core values express our beliefs that:

- The Foundation is a strong ambassador and advocate for BCPS.
- The Foundation is among the preeminent charities for the advancement of education in our community.
- All BCPS students deserve equitable access to a world-class education.
- The Foundation's Executive Staff and Board of Directors exhibit professionalism and compassion in all our endeavors.
